THIS BUILDING, 1133 EAST 11TH...

has been an East Austin neighborhood bar for over eighty years. The historic oak bar, manufactured by former Austin major Joseph Nalle, started its life at the Driskill Hotel until Walter "Pike" Schieffer moved it here in 1934 to open Pike's Place. Over the years Pike's was followed by Tony's Tavern, the Dew Drop Inn, 11th St. Tavern, James Tavern and various iterations of the Longbranch Inn. We are proud to carry on the local tradition with a little added flavor from Buffalo and Detroit.

Welcome to Nickel City.
